What Have We Learned From the Iowa Caucus?

By: G. A. Beller, Political Junkie and Author of

NOT BLACK AND WHITE: From the Very Windy City to 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue

So what have we learned?

A seventy-four year old Jewish, self-professed socialist from New England, who admits to being an agnostic and is an independent, goes to a Bible Belt Midwestern city to run against a prominent Democratic, well-funded, brilliant Christian woman who is experienced, having been Secretary of State, who starts with a 50-point lead, and campaigns with her husband, a two-term former Democratic President. They have a massive amount of money to spend on their campaign and her message, and the old fart, with his campaign promoting a spending program of over 15 trillion dollars, leaves the state with half of the delegates. ABSOLUTELY ASTOUNDING!!!!
